

270net Partners with AVG Technologies

FREDERICK, MD (August 1, 2008) – After a comprehensive search of potential partners to provide file server and workstation security solutions for its clients, 270net Technologies, Inc., a Veteran-Owned Small Business (VOSB) providing IT services to public and private sector clients, has selected AVG Technologies as its preferred vendor.

AVG Technologies (formerly Grisoft) is based in Europe and has deployed its product worldwide to over 70 million active users. The company was founded in 1991 and has been a top presence in the fight against malware ever since. AVG products have consistently received extremely positive reviews, winning awards from PC Pro, Techworld, and CNET, among others. They have proven consistently reliable in discovering and deleting threats using the latest industry tests and benchmarks while striking a balance between security and performance.

AVG Anti-Virus 8.0 Network Edition has many attractive features that make it a comprehensive business-line security application. This version offers server-side centralized management on the local network, providing updates, monitoring and reporting, synchronized group settings for custom scheduled scanning, and enforcement of client compliance throughout the enterprise. The client side program is exceptional at detecting the latest viruses with thorough scanning methods, as well as employing unique features such as real-time threat prevention and URL link scanning to ensure safe Web browsing. The user interface is incredibly intuitive, making even the most novice computer user feel comfortable.

270net runs AVG Anti-Virus 8.0 Network Edition on its own servers and workstations, and is proud to have partnered with AVG and to provide this excellent solution to our clients. The crippling effects of malware on a network can directly affect revenue and data security, but AVG Anti-Virus handles these threats proficiently and transparently. The inexpensive Network Edition and the free Home Edition are both outstanding products that 270net strongly endorses.
